Minneapolis, March 5, 2020 – Victory goes to those who show up... but sometimes that’s only because no one else does.

This Saturday, March 7th, 2020, at the Minnesota Republican Senate District 61 Convention, “Openly Sane” Republican US Senate candidate Bob “Again” Carney Jr., (“bobagain”) will introduced a resolution passed unanimously at his precinct caucus to impeach President Trump. (See the 2/27 NEWS RELEASE for details; it follows this one in the .pdf graphics version.)

The Media is invited to attend the Convention, starting at 10 AM this Saturday, at Burroughs Elementary School, 1601 W. 50th St., Minneapolis.

“Frankly, the expected very low turnout will probably be as newsworthy as anything this small group does,” bobagain commented. Joe

Joe Biden receives at least 9% of bobagain’s GOP Presidential primary precinct vote.

Biden won at least 9% of bobagain's GOP Presidential primary vote (see photo of bobagain's GOP primary ballot) – but GOP turnout was 11 voters... bobagain's one vote is 9% of that turnout. "I'm also sending this NEWS RELEASE to the Star Tribune's Obituaries Department – maybe this is really more their story," bobagain commented.

Total GOP Presidential primary turnout for SD 61 was 633 votes; 9% were write-ins. Because party Chairs will receive a list of Presidential primary voters by party, it may be possible to estimate at some point whether there was a significant participation in the DFL primary by people known to have participated in Republican party politics in previous elections.

NEWS RELEASE – “Openly Sane” MN GOP US Senate candidate’s Minneapolis Republican Precinct Caucus resolution to impeach President Trump passes unanimously – SPOILER ALERT: caucus attendance was one voter

Minneapolis, February 27, 2020 – Victory goes to those who show up – but this is ridiculous!

Standing precariously on the corpse of an elephant at last Tuesday’s precinct caucus, Minnesota “Openly Sane” Republican US Senate candidate Bob “Again” Carney Jr., (“bobagain”) introduced a resolution to impeach President Trump. The resolution passed unanimously – however, bobagain was the only Republican to attend the Minneapolis Ward 13 Precinct 10 GOP caucus, held at Burroughs School. Minneapolis 13-10 was one of four GOP caucuses to meet in the lunchroom; bobagain observed a total of about ten people for all four. The resolution text is below – it will be forwarded to the GOP SD 61 Convention, where bobagain will be a delegate. It could (theoretically) become party of the party platform. The four caucuses also heard a brief candidate speech from bobagain – who introduced himself as an “openly sane” Republican, briefly touched on impeachment, and focused on climate change and environmental issues that will be a main focus of his campaign – the speech was reasonably well received. Jennifer Zielinski, a candidate for the SD 61 Republican State Senate endorsement and nomination, and the 2018 Republican nominee for 5th District Congress, was the only other candidate to speak.

Annie Larson, of the Minnesota Secretary of State’s office Elections division told bobagain caucus attendance results will not be published by the Secretary of State’s office, and that there was as yet no official word from her office as to whether any write-in votes will be counted for any GOP presidential candidate. Scott Graham is the Minnesota state DFL contact person for caucus information, bobagain left a message requesting a callback on DFL caucus results. The Minnesota Republican Party of Minnesota's phone number – 651-222-0022 – goes immediately to an unidentified voicemail; bobagain left a message.

Scattered media reports indicate low caucus attendance – the Saint Cloud times reported: “Sue Rice, chairwoman of Senate District 14 GOP, said an estimated count tallied just under 90 participants at the caucus held at Apollo High School.” It seems surprising that two days after the caucuses, there is apparently no media report (if Google is any indication) of total attendance for either party in Minnesota.

“Even with the very low baseline of Republican votes in recent Minneapolis elections, this level of turnout – a couple people per caucus for four surveyed -- is simply incredible, especially given that there is a contested GOP Senate endorsement,” bobagain commented. “I observed no straw polls for any office. Frankly, we must also wonder, with only one named candidate on the Minnesota GOP Presidential primary ballot next week, is there some effort afoot to organize GOP voters to vote in the Democratic (DFL) primary, with the intent of ‘screwing things up’ for the Democrats?” bobagain concluded.

Resolved, that President Trump should be impeached for an “Inability to discharge the Powers and Duties of the said Office [of President]”, explicitly not a “high Crime or Misdemeanor”, and that the Senate, during its trial, should hear expert medical and legal testimony as to the alleged “Inability”, and, if President Trump is convicted “guilty as charged”, shall determine during the Judgment phase of the trial, whether President Trump should be suspended until further notice from the Senate, but not removed from office.*
